Date	November 3, 2000	Comments	I teach 5th grade at Willis Middle School where I was a junior highschooler myself. It's special being at the same school in which my dad graduated from (and my Uncle Bill). I logged on to this website on Orange and Black Pride Day here at Willis to show my present students what Willis looked like when it was a high school. I was hoping to see my dad's picture in the "In Memory" section. He died in 1991 at the age of 50. He had cancer. He was so proud of Willis and Delaware. I would love to hear from any of his former classmates. He used to tell my brother and me such wonderful stories!!! But, my dad only used nicknames for his pals, so real names I'd probably have trouble with!

		Comments	I just want to compliment Sondra on the terrific Willis Website. I really have enjoyed it. I hope to hear from more classmates via e-mail. I have fond memories of Willis and all the fun times with friends. I hope to make it to one of the reunions. I was sorry to have missed the last one. It sounded like everyone had a great time. Maybe we will be in town for the next reunion. I really enjoyed hearing from Sondra Flowers Hopper, Sally Jo Scott Scott, and Judy Myers Rosebrough. Hope to hear from more of you.

I've just returned from almost a month in Europe, so am trying to sort out reunion memories and travel memories=="sorting out" seems to get more difficult to do as te years go by! I'd love to hear from any or all of you--this is a wonderful way to get caught up--thank you Sondra for all your efforts!

Date	September 11, 2000	Comments	Hi everyone. I sure enjoyed our reunion this past August. Everyone did a wonderful with the planning. Thanks to Sondra for this site--I did not know that it existed until this week. Great fun!!!!!! We were all so lucky to have grown up in such a wonderful town. I tried to give that to my two boys as they grew up in Woodstock, Ga.--very much like Delaware, or at least it was while they were young. I have enjoyed my last two visits to Delaware, since I have no immediate family there, I don't get back except for reunions.

Date	September 5, 2000	Comments	I had my doubts,at first, about putting three classes together for a reunion, but it turned out to be really great! Lots of people and many friendships renewed. One common thread in conversations was how all of our memories are becoming a bit worse as we age--but that doesn't seem to interfere with us having a great time and lots of fun. There were so many people who helped make the 2000 reunion a success; I am so glad we did it that way. And it wasn't horribly hot at the fairgrounds--I sent my husband home to bring me jeans and a sweatshirt! Who'd believe it to be cold in August? Even the brunch turnout was amazing. Good food, good company, good times, and more good memories. If you were unable to be there, you really missed a fun weekend!!Hope to see you next time...

The Class reunion for three classes was so neat. Of course, I had enough trouble remembering people from my own class (61), let alone trying to place upper classmen. I spent the night staring at name tags, and wondering how many of us had freshly colored hair! Talking briefly with Ted Pope...he puts braces on kids teeth. Oh sure....we need dentures, and he's into straightening us all out! Picked up Sherry Geesman at the airport. She flew in from California, and this is probably the first time I've seen her since graduation. (Not many changes...only the ones for the better!) I'm in a state of shock. Harvey Hatten is retired already. I was just thinking that in our next reunion (five years from now) that we'll all be close to retirement.....but Harvey's already there! Tony Pope's retired too?????? Shirley Brimhall, I promise you'd know her anywhere! Twila Vipperman too. Darlene Winship too... Now, I'll have to admit, there are some of us who have changed drastically. Thank God for the name tags. And who would ha

I have lived all over the country since I left Delaware. I taught school in Colorado. I lived in Tucson, Arizona for a number of years where I lost my husband to cancer 9 years ago. I now live in Maine where I love living by the sea, and where I work for the University of Southern Maine on a project for the Office of Justice in D.C. I travel all over the country, and recently I passed through Delaware, and was so pleased to find that it was as beautiful as I remembered. I so often wonder where all of my wonderful classmates are--Patty Clark, Patty Daniels, Billy Millhoan, Sherry Phillian, Wendy Dittrick, Carolee Roof, Tom Walsh, Tom Workman, Edwina,Peggy, and so many others. I hope some of you see this and log on--I remember highschool as such a wonderful time except for one teacher who is now listed as being 90 years old.

This is a great job on Willis High, alumni, and city of Delaware! I would have graduated with class of 1951, went from 1st through 10th grades in Delaware. Attended North Elementary School. Was "soda jerk" at Kinsey Drug Store for a few years in late 40s. Had to move to Springfield, Ohio for my junior and senior years of high school, but have always felt Delaware is home. Was sorry to see that my then good friend, Ted Hilliard past away a few years ago. Would love to hear from any classmates and friends that still remember me from that time way back. You have done a wonderful job with this site! Good luck and keep up the good work!

This is my second year of retirement after 30 years of teaching elementary school in Delaware. I still love Delaware. There are many of our classmates in the area. We are working on the reunion for classes of 59, 60 and 61 for the summer of 2000. I have 6 children and 10 grandchildren and I love my life! I also, have great memories of my years at Willis. I see Sandy Patrick Woods, Shirley Brimhall Welsh, Mary Carson Cross, Pegi Oman Laaksonen, Karen Oller George, Fred Oehler, Dick Patrick, James "Harvey" Hatten, Ann Lawson Sanderson, Vicki DeVries Mills and others( I apologize if I missed anyone .) around town, especially when we are working on reunions. Delaware has changed a lot, but it still is the best small town I've heard of! Love to hear from any of you. 1/1/00

Ken Hankins, Class of '54, recently shared this memory: "Do you remember the Moat Monster, just a bit east of S. Sandusky St., in the Delaware Run? It was constructed by some OWU students from chrome automobile parts. It has since been removed." I had heard rumors but never saw it myself. How about you?

		Comments	I am sitting here right now with Brent Carson (Class of 1966) in room 21 of the old Willis building. Brent and I both try to teach sixth grade where we both attended school. We are meeting this afternoon to discuss activities involving 6th graders and our local History Club. We're attempting to keep Delaware and Willis history alive! Our most recent news is that we are beginning plans for an alumni archbves room here in our (your) school. Presently, Willis houses 6th, 7th, and 8th grades. Next year, however, Willis will become a 5th and 6th grade building due to the growth in Delaware. That means more space and fewer students in our building. Because of the additional available space, we have been promised a room across from the old principal's office to house our yearbooks, photographs, artifacts, and historical memorabilia. We hope to set up a Web page for our History Club soon. If you're ever in town and would like to visit Willis, contact the office and let us know. We'd love to see you!

		Comments	"Cap" Gabriel, owner of Cap's Barber Shop on W. William St., died June 18, 1999. He was 97 years old. Everyone had his hair cut at Cap's! I used to read comics while my dad got his hair cut. Remember the large wooden-armed chairs around the walls of the room?

Date	July 29, 1999	Comments	Sandra (Green) Davis, Class of '56, reports the following: "By the way, in case you didn't know, Miss Dill, first grade teacher at East School for many years, died this summer. She was John's first grade teacher and she remembered him very well....every time we saw her, she would remember a classroom story about him. He always thought it was so neat she remembered him." (She is referring to her husband, John Davis, Class of '55.)
